National Strategies to End Opioid Addiction

The Harford County Office of Drug Control Policy will grant $250 to any Harford County PTA with 100 people in attendance from their school.

Bertha K. Madras, PhD

In 2017 Bertha K. Madras, PhD, of McLean Hospital and Harvard Medical School served on President Trump's Commission on Combating Drug Addiction and the Opioid Crisis. The Commission identified strengths and weaknesses in our nation's response to drug addiction and the opioid crisis and recommended solutions to improve prevention, intervention, and treatment. Madras is a professor of psychobiology at Harvard Medical School and is cross-appointed at Massachusetts General Hospital. Her current research explores drug effects on the developing adolescent brain.
